

POSTGRADUATE QUALIFYING PROGRAM (PQP)

(CRICOS: 094357D)

Why study PQP?

The Postgraduate Qualifying Program (PQP) is a pathway to postgraduate study. Combining academic and English language subjects, the PQP helps you advance your business knowledge and build the verbal and written English skills necessary for a successful postgraduate learning experience. Through the inclusion of postgraduate-level academic subjects, PQP graduates can gain entry, with credit for two subjects, into one of the following master's courses at the International College of Management, Sydney (ICMS).

Pathway master's courses at ICMS

- Master of Management – 078929F
- Master of Management (Tourism and Hospitality) – 113110K
- Master of Event Management – 097379G
- Master of Business Administration – 112980E
- Master of Business Administration (Innovation and Entrepreneurship) – 112982C
- Master of Business Administration (Digital Transformation) – 112981D
- Master of Business Administration (Business Analytics) – 112983B1

As you progress, you will not only gain exposure to postgraduate management studies, but you will also have completed a portion of your master's degree.

Successful course completion provides students with a nationally recognised award that improves their employment prospects.

Aspire testimonials:

“

“I am passionate about combining academic learning with hands-on experience (Aspire program), and ICMS provides the perfect environment for this integration. I am grateful for the diverse student community at the college, which has allowed me to connect with various cultures, fostering a supportive and enriching learning atmosphere. I am truly appreciative of the unique and rewarding educational experience that ICMS (Aspire) has to offer.”

Zhuolin Liu

Master of Event Management at ICMS

“

“As an international student, before starting my studies, I attended the Aspire English program to learn English. Linda was my professor, and her humorous and witty language taught me many useful English skills. The classmates were very friendly, to the extent that I was able to pass the English exam quickly.”
